

Hampshire Rally – Sunday 14th August 2011

This year's Hampshire Rally will be held at Gilbert White's House & Garden and The Oates Collection located at Selborne. Discover three fascinating stories about explorers of the Natural World, Gilbert White, the pioneering 18th century naturalist. Explore his home, set in 25 acres of magnificent parkland. Learn about Captain Oates, who undertook the epic journey of discovery to the South Pole in 1911-12 with Captain Scott. See an expedition sledge. Meet the penguins! And Frank Oates, 19th century explorer of Africa and the Americas. Marvel at the fabulous collection of birds, animals and African weapons. Delight in the wonderful garden, with plant sales too. Enjoy the award winning Tea Parlour and charming gift shop. Beautiful Church adjacent 1000 years old + Foot and Mouth Artists Shop.

The format for the day will be as follows:

Lunch at The Holly Bush, Headley (near Carl's house) – 12 noon

After a short drive to the museum at Selborne, there will be an introductory talk which will give a further insight into the history of the house and the three explorers of the natural world whose lives and work are celebrated there.

Cream teas will be available in the afternoon.

Due to the fact we are booking as a group, we need to pay the admission fee and cost of the cream tea three weeks before the event. Therefore it is important that you please complete and return the attached entry form no later than Sunday 24th July 2011. If you have any queries regarding the event please phone me on 01329 233615.
