The parish Church of St. Quiricus and St. Julietta in Tickenham, Somerset, England, has 11th century origins, with the nave and chancel being extended by the addition of aisles and the south chapel in the early 13th century.

It has been designated as a Grade I listed building.

Invitation to Members of the Trojan Owners Club to come to the 2016 North Somerset Rally on 17th July 2016, starting at around 10.30 at Roger Triggol's home (address above).

At around 11.30 we will set off on a route of around 20 miles around the coast in the direction of Clevedon to finish at a pub for lunch. Following which we will return to Tickenham, where there will be the opportunity to view Roger's collection of vehicles, and perhaps even get to drive a vintage tractor.
